

2017 Crooked Creek Camp contract

This is a contract between Bear River Young Life and

Said camper is responsible for paying for camp through scholarships, personal funds and event earnings of $515 for the Crooked Creek camp trip July 30-Aug. 3, 2017. The camper is responsible for his/her camping spot and the $515 after Tuesday, June 13, 2017. If the camper drops his/her spot after June 13 for reasons other than family emergency they are responsible for the spot or for finding a camper to replace them who will be responsible for the same amount of cost as the original camper.

Additionally, if a camper is unable to account for the full $515 before the day of camp, they must sign a payment plan for the remaining funding and if the plan is not met, the camper will be charged 10 percent interest on the amount owed from that plan starting Aug. 10 and not allowed to attend another YL camp until caught up.

This contract must be signed by both a parent/guardian and camper the week of June 13.
